An inside look at Islamabad Serena Hotel

The Serena Hotel in Islamabad stands at the foot of the Margalla Hills directly next to the Diplomatic Enclave, on fourteen acres of land with beautiful gardens and the serene shore of the Rawal Lake in close proximity, next to the Diplomatic Enclave. The architecture and interiors of this fabulous Hotel building is a mere reflection of typical Pakistani cultural heritage perfectly depicting the skills and craftsmanship of native artisans. In this state-of-the-art building, local traditions are elegantly combined with latest technologies in order to provide a comfortable stay for our prestigious guests. The true spirit of this Islamabad Hotel is reflected in the aesthetics of the public areas, corridors, rooms, and restaurants, highlighting trademarks of Islamic architecture. The Hotel's remarkable architecture is a blend of rich, elaborated, and vivid designs where the artisans have really shown their magical skills especially on the ceilings, floors, and walls.
